Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that your application for exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 170(b)(1)(D) has been approved. Donors can deduct contributions made to your organization under Section 170. You are also qualified to receive the deduction for contributions to your organization at state under Section 2055, 2057, or 2512. If you have any questions regarding questions of your exempt status, please contact the office of the Director.

Organizations exempt from federal income tax under Section 170(b)(1)(D) or other public charities are eligible to receive the deduction for contributions made under the 170(b)(1)(D) election.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an application for a ruling was required, our website provides information regarding the application process. If you do not file a required application within the year, your exempt status will be automatically terminated.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an application for a ruling was not required, the application is an integral part of this letter.
